- (a) the structure of an applicant’s or a licensee’s economic group, if any, will hinder effective supervision; or
 - (b) the activities of any entity in the Cayman banking group are likely to negatively impact the financial stability of the licensee or prejudice the interests of the licensee’s depositors.

- (2) The conditions that may be imposed by the Authority under subsection (1) include the condition that the economic group or the Cayman banking group undergo a restructure.

Shares not to be issued or transferred without approval of Authority

7. (1) No shares in a company which is a licensee under this Act shall be issued, and no issued shares shall be transferred or disposed of in any manner, without the prior approval of the Authority.
- (2) The Authority may exempt from the provisions of subsection (1) a licensee whose shares are publicly traded on a stock exchange recognised by the Authority, and any such exemption —
- (a) shall be subject to a condition that the licensee shall, as soon as reasonably practicable, notify the Authority of —

- (ii) the acquisition by any person or group of persons of shares representing more than ten per cent of the licensee's issued share capital or total voting rights; or
- (iii) the acquisition by any person or group of persons of shares representing more than ten per cent of the issued share capital or total voting rights of the licensee's parent company;
- (b) shall be subject to a condition that the licensee shall, as soon as reasonably practicable, provide such information to the Authority, and within such period of time, as the Authority may require for the purpose of enabling an assessment as to whether persons acquiring control or ownership of the licensee in the circumstances set out in paragraph (a) are fit and proper persons to have such control or ownership; and
- (c) shall be subject to such terms and other conditions as the Authority may deem necessary.
- (3) In subsection (1) the reference to shares being transferred or disposed of includes not only the transfer or disposal of the legal interest in the shares but also the transfer or disposal of any beneficial interest in the shares.

Net worth requirements

8. (1) Except in the case of a Restricted "B" licence, or a Restricted Trust licence, or a Nominee (Trust) licence, a licence shall not be granted to a bank or trust company unless it has a net worth of not less than four hundred thousand dollars or its equivalent in other currencies, or such greater sum as may be determined by the Authority.
- (2) A Restricted "B" licence or a Restricted Trust licence shall not be granted to a bank or trust company unless it has a net worth of not less than twenty thousand dollars or its equivalent in other currencies, or such greater sum as may be determined by the Authority.

- (3) A Nominee (Trust) licence shall not be granted to a trust company unless such trust company furnishes a guarantee from the licensee of which it is a wholly-owned subsidiary for liabilities of up to two hundred thousand dollars or its equivalent in other currencies, or such greater sum as may be determined by the Authority.
- (4) When the Authority has reasonable cause to believe that there are grounds for doing so, the Authority may require a licensee to increase its net worth by increasing its paid-up capital to such greater sum as the Authority may determine for the nature of the banking business or trust business, current or proposed.
- (5) A licensee shall at all times maintain the net worth required by this section unless exempted by the Authority.
- (6) The parent undertaking of a Cayman banking group is required to ensure that the net worth stipulated in this section, or such higher net worth as the Authority may direct, is maintained both in respect of the licensee on a solo basis and on a consolidated basis taking into account all the entities in the Cayman banking group.

Capital funds requirements

9. (1) The Authority may, by notice in writing, require a licensee to maintain such portion of its issued capital, in cash or cash equivalent instruments, in such amounts and in such manner, as the Authority considers appropriate, having regard to the risks arising from the activities of the licensee and such other factors as the Authority considers relevant.

- (2) The Authority may, if it considers it to be appropriate in the particular circumstances of a licensee incorporated under the Companies Act (2021 Revision) having regard to the risks arising from the activities of the licensee and such other factors as the Authority considers relevant, vary the capital adequacy ratio applicable to that licensee.

- (2A) The parent undertaking of a Cayman banking group, which may be a licensee, is required to ensure that capital requirements and other prudential measures that may be issued by the Authority are met on a consolidated basis by the Cayman banking group.
- (2B) The parent undertaking of a Cayman banking group, which may be a licensee, shall be required to ensure that any prudential, supervisory or risk management measures that may be issued by the Authority from time to time are met on a consolidated basis by the Cayman banking group.
- (3) Where a licensee or the parent undertaking of a Cayman banking group fails to comply with a requirement of this section, the licensee may, for the purpose of section 18, be treated by the Authority as carrying on business in a manner detrimental to the public interest, the interest of its depositors or other creditors.

- (4) Whenever the Authority considers it to be in the public interest, the Authority may withdraw any approval given under subsection (1).
- (5) The Authority may refuse to grant a licence to a bank or trust company or, if such bank or trust company is already in possession of a licence, the Authority may revoke such licence if, in the Authority’s opinion, such bank or trust company is carrying on or intending to carry on banking or trust business, as the case may be, under a name which —

- (3) A licensee shall not appoint as an auditor a person disqualified under subsection (2).
- (4) Where the Authority has granted approval of an auditor under this Act, the approval may be revoked by the Authority if the Authority is of the opinion that the auditor is not sufficiently competent to carry out an audit of the accounts of a licensee or that, in all the circumstances, the auditor is incapable of carrying out the audit objectively.
